"Siempre será Pentecostés en la Iglesia", afirmó el Beato Oscar Romero, Arzobispo de El Salvador, el domingo de Pentecostés de 1978, "siempre que la Iglesia deje que la belleza del Espíritu Santo brille en su rostro. Cuando la Iglesia deje de permitirle La fuerza descansa en el Poder de lo alto que Cristo le prometió y que le dio ese día, y cuando la Iglesia se apoye más bien en las fuerzas débiles del poder o riqueza de esta tierra, entonces la Iglesia dejará de ser noticia. será justa de ver, perennemente joven, atractiva en cada época, siempre que sea fiel al Espíritu que la inun-da y refleje ese Espíritu a través de sus comunidades, de sus pastores, de su vida misma"

La violencia del amor, The Plough Pub. Co

La declaración del Arzobispo Romero nos recuerda, al igual que el Evangelio de hoy, que Pentecostés no es sólo un día, sino todos los días. Sin aliento no hay vida. Sin el Espíritu, la Iglesia es un campo de huesos secos y muertos. El Venerable Fulton J. Sheen dijo una vez acerca de la Iglesia: "Aunque somos el pueblo elegido de Dios, a menudo nos comportamos más como el pueblo congelado de Dios: congelados en nuestra vida de oración, congelados en la forma en que nos relacionamos unos con otros, congelados en la manera en que celebramos nuestra Fe." Hoy es un gran día para pedirle al Espíritu Santo que reavive en nosotros el espíritu de nueva vida y entusiasmo, el fuego del amor de Dios. Repitamos la pequeña oración favorita del Beato Cardenal John Henry Newman:

"Ven, espíritu santo
Haz que nuestros oídos escuchen
Haz que nuestros ojos vean
Haz que nuestras bocas hablen
Haz que nuestros corazones busquen
Haz que nuestras manos se extiendan
Y toca el mundo con tu amor. AMÉN."

"It will always be Pentecost in the Church," said Blessed Oscar Romero, Archbishop of El Salvador, on Pentecost Sunday 1978, "as long as the Church lets the beauty of the Holy Spirit shine on her face. When the Church stops allowing it Strength rests in the Power from above that Christ promised her and gave her that day, and when the Church relies rather on the weak forces of the power or wealth of this earth, then the Church will cease to be newsworthy. to see, perennially young, attractive in every era, as long as she is faithful to the Spirit that floods her and reflects that Spirit through her communities, her pastors, her life itself." The violence of love, The Plow Pub. Co.,

Archbishop Romero's statement reminds us, like today's Gospel, that Pentecost is not just one day, but every day. Without breath there is no life. Without the Spirit, the Church is a field of dry and dead bones. The Venerable Fulton J. Sheen once said of the Church: "Though we are God's chosen people, we often behave more like God's frozen people: frozen in our prayer life, frozen in the way we relate to each other. with each other, frozen in the way we celebrate our Faith." Today is a great day to ask the Holy Spirit to rekindle in us the spirit of new life and enthusiasm, the fire of God's love. Let us repeat the favorite little prayer of Blessed Cardinal John Henry Newman: "Come Holy Spirit":

"Come, holy spirit
Make our ears listen
Make our eyes see
Make our mouths talk
Make our hearts seek
Make our hands spread
And touch the world with your love. AMEN."
